

The school building

The school building is old. It has lots of rooms. We have a music room, a computer room, a library and a big playground outside. The classrooms are not so big. In the music room we have lots of instruments, it's very cool. The playground is cool too, there are two climbing frames and many plants. In the classrooms we have smartboards. The library is not so old is has many books.

Written by Chiara

